THANKING THE PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE FCÉNB

Edmundston, October 4, 2024 – The Fédération des conseils d'éducation du Nouveau-Brunswick (FCENB) would like to express its deep gratitude to Mrs. Marie-Ève Rousseau, President, and Mr. David Couturier, Executive Director, for their exceptional leadership and unwavering dedication to New Brunswick's francophone education system.

Under their leadership, the FCENB has made significant strides in school governance and strengthened its commitment to quality education for all francophone students in the province. Their passion for education and strategic vision have been essential pillars of our organization.

The FCENB's slogan, "French at Heart, Education in mind", perfectly reflects Ms. Rousseau and Mr. Couturier's commitment. Their invaluable contribution has left a lasting imprint on our educational community.

We wish them every success in their new professional adventures and thank them sincerely for all they have accomplished.
